

Development Corridors: Small business activity in the African Central Development Corridor

January 2009

Comprising two separate reports, this desktop-based research on the Central Development Corridor (Tanzania, Rwanda, Burundi and eastern Democratic Republic of Congo) provides a broad description of the SME environment in Africa, with specific information on the operating environment and composition of the SME sector in Tanzania, Rwanda and Burundi.

Full report not available for download